

Sharon J. Harms

www.sharonharmsart.com

Nashville, TN
sharonharmsart@gmail.com

I create narrative still life paintings using symbolism conveyed through manmade objects that explore culture, history, beliefs and subjective experience. The objects are assembled intuitively with the intention of finding unexpected stories that alter my perspective in some way. My hyperrealistic style encourages examination to find personal meaning.

Everyone thought Frank was a company man oil on linen, 40 x 30 inches